

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI TRIESTE

Dipartimento di
Scienze Giuridiche, del Linguaggio, dell'Interpretazione e della Traduzione - IUSLIT

THE ROLE OF THE ITALIAN AND THE GERMAN CONSTITUTIONAL COURTS IN THE MULTILEVEL CONSTRUCTION OF CRIMINAL GUARANTEES IN EUROPE

Friday 15 March 2024 15:00-18:30 – Sala Tessitori, Piazza G. Oberdan 5, Trieste

Gian Paolo Dolso, Director Department of Legal Studies, University of Trieste
Welcome Address

Nicola Recchia, University of Trieste
Introductory Remarks

Chair Christoph Burchard, University of Frankfurt

Frank Zimmermann, University of Münster
Criminal Law and Political Protest

Alessandra Galluccio, University of Milano Statale
Political Use of Slogans and Symbols as Advocacy of Violence and Discrimination?

Alessandra Santangelo, University of Bologna
The ECHR Contamination on Nullum Crimen has been Slow-Paced? Constraints and Future Challenges for Predictability

Saturday 16 March 2024 09:30-13:00 – Aula Bachelet, Edificio A, Piazzale Europa 1, Trieste

Chair Vittorio Manes, University of Bologna

Christoph Burchard, University of Frankfurt
From Blinding to Binding Trust

Dominik Brodowski, Saarland University
Proportionality of Sanctions in Member States' Criminal Justice: the European Perspective

Francesco Viganò, University of Milano Bocconi, Judge at the Italian Constitutional Court
Proportionality of Sanctions in Member States' Criminal Justice: an Italian Perspective

Stefano Manacorda, University of Campania
EU Restrictive Measures and Fundamental Rights: First Steps in Jurisprudence

Conference funded in the framework of the Microgrants Programme by the Friuli Venezia Giulia Region