The network RiVolti ai Balcani

To break the silence on the “Balkan route”, denounce what is happening in those places, and send a clear message that the vulnerable subjects of “the game” are no longer alone, the “RiVolti ai Balcani” network was born in the autumn of 2019, which includes over 36 associations and individuals engaged in the defense of people’s rights and of the fundamental principles on which the Italian Constitution and European and international standards are based.
